BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Appeals against the Dy Com's order dt 14.11.16, declining to reconsider the order already passed by him in the case on 28.8.16, directing that the Inam lands of the above Temple be put up for public sale & the lease sold to the highest bidder, and to cancel the sale already effected under his orders.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The petr says that the lands in question have been in poss[n] & enjoyment of the petr's family for a long time past & the stipulated services ever since being attended to by his family the above Temple (as detailed in para 3 of this petn). He says, further, that the village of Moodi Dodi Koppa is split up into factions, and that on the representation of a few belonging to his opposite party that services in the Temple are not being regularly conducted, the Dk amildar, without holding any enquiry or giving the petr an opportunity to have his say, has reported that the lands shd be taken under Govt management & that relying on this report, the Dc has passed the order now appealed against by him.

The petr states that he is be-hoved to ~~[illegible]~~ subscribe to any orders Govt may be pleased to direct with regard to the services to be performed in the Temple and to bear any addl burdens that may be imposed as a guarantee for the due per-formance of the stipulated

This is a typical case where the institution for whose benefit the inam lands were given, have been denied the full advantage of the grant and participation in the increased profits.

The inam lands were granted for puja, naivadiya, Carfestival vaguetati and pavamanabhishekam i.e for all services in the temple. The lands were divided — it is difficult to say under what authority — between the Patel of the village who had the responsibility to see to the performance of the Services and certain officials who saw to the abhishekam. No portion of the income was set apart for the repairs of the building and for the Carfestival with the result that the building is now reported to be in a dilapidated condition.

The present appellants are in the position of trustees and should Not obviously claim any beneficiary interest in the property on the score that the lands have been in their enjoyment for a long time. If they are performing any service personally ~~any basis~~ in the temple, they may be paid for it. Such service having included in the Scale of expenditure. The first care is to bring the temple building in a proper state of repair for which funds have to be accumulated.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Muzrai Appeal No. of 1916-17.

Devappa Woleya bin Cundappa Wodaya ..... Appellant

V.S.

1. Mallakappa

2. Kammar Siddappa ..... Respondents.

3. Totada Puttappa

The appellant above-named begs to prefer the following appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner of ~~Shi~~ Shimoga (?) ~~taluka~~ communicated to the appellant through the endorsement herewith filed and dated 14-11-1916, on the following among other grounds:--

1. Three lands situated in the village of Local Doddi Koppa, Soraba Taluk, viz., Survey Numbers 114, 257, and 280 respectively, stand in the Name of the deity Hanumantharaya of the said village, being Inam lands attached to the said temple.

2. The said three lands have been in the exclusive and uninterrupted possession and enjoyment of the appellant in his family for more than hundred years or so, as can be seen from the revenue records.

3. It has been customary in the appellant's family to render certain services at the Hanumanthna Devara Temple, viz., (a) to cause the daily pooja of the deity to be properly performed, (b) to light the Lamps Deepa and (c) to perform the Navaratri and Kartika Utsava, in return for the enjoyment of the Inam lands and the produce thereof.

4. The appellant also, like his predecessors, has been duly and properly performing the said services to the satisfaction of the majority of the villagers and also of the [illegible] Revenue Authorities.

5. The village of Koodi Doddakoppa, however, is torn into factions. About 10 or 12 persons belonging to the faction opposed to that of the appellant, appear to have complained to the Authorities behind the back of the appellant, to the effect that the appellant was not rendering proper services at the temple &c.

6. Thereupon, the Amildar of [illegible] without holding any formal enquiryinto the matterand without notice to the appellant and giving him a chance of meeting the complaints against him appears to have held that the charges against the appellant were well founded and recommended the change of lands of the Inam lands in question.

7. Thereupon, upon the orders of the Deputy Commissioner of ~~Chitaldrug~~ Shimoga the said lands were put up for sale and sold on 16-4-1916 in favour of the respondents for ₹ 130, the condition of the above-sale being that the respondents should enjoy the said lands for a period of five years paying annually ₹ 130/- therefor.

8. The sale above referred to works as a very great hardship on the appellant and involves irreparable loss and damage to him and his family.

9. Nothing has been judicially proved against the appellant by way of misconduct or neglect, no warning given to him, much less a chance of proving his innocence.

10. In a village containing a population of nearly 1500 persons, the highly interested statements of 10 or 12 persons have been given undue weight and importance to the prejudice of the appellant.

11. Lands which have been in the possession and enjoyment of the appellant's family for nearly 100 years are now ordered to be diverted from the possession of that family on very inadequate and unsatisfactory grounds, contrary to express and well-recognised revenue rules.

12. The appellant is prepared to obey any instruction from the Muzrai Authorities as regards the services he has to render hereafter, and prepared to bear even such additional burdens as the said Authorities may be pleased in their discretion to impose 13. Under the circumstances the appellant respectfully prays that the sale of the lands in favour of the respondents may kindly be cancelled.

14. The appellant further respectfully prays that pending the hearing and disposal of this appeal, this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to direct that the order of the Deputy Commissioner under appeal may not be given effect to but stayed and held in abeyance.

15. Lands for the cultivation and improvement of which thousands of rupees have been spent on the security of the appellant's title therefor will involve the ruin of the appellant's family if at this stage he is compelled to hand over possession to the respondents, which change of hands will also involve other complicated questions which it is not desirable to avoid

Sir,

With reference to your Nos.1604 Muz: 356-16-2 dated the 2nd January 1917 and 3337 Muz: 376-16-2 dated the 21st March 1917 forwarding petition from one Devappa Wodeya and Krishnaoayee, ahableswarabhatta respectively for report with connected records, I have the honor to state as follows:-

S.Nos.111-257-280-117 and 305 of the village Mudi in Sorab Taluk wi a total extent of acres 21 guntas 11 assessed at Rs.95/- were endowed to Sree Hanumantha Devaru of the village.

2. S.Nos.114, 257 and 280 were in the management of Guddappa Wodeya, father of the appellant, S.No.117 to that of Krishnabhatta and S.No.305 in that of Samabhatta and Mahabaleswarabhatta.

3. On the receipt of complaint against the managers of these lands for their mismanagement and failure to perform services in the temple since the year 1902, orders were issued for enquiry and report in the matter.

4. These managers executed muchalikas on the 15th December 1915 binding themselves to the proper management and services of the temple and also stating that they have no objection if the Government were to interfere in case of any omission on their part. One of the managers by name Guddappa Wodeya, the father of one of the appellants, who was enjoying the greater portion of the Inam lands gave a statement on the 7th May 1915 binding himself to repair the temple within a month from that date.

5. The Amildar of Sorab Taluk in his report No.98 dated the 10th August 1915 stated that the affairs of the temple were not satisfactory, that the temple was in a dilapidated condition and that the managers maintained no no accounts and therefore recommended that the lands be taken over for management by Government.

6. Thereupon the Amildar was ordered in this Office No.141 dated the 1st November 1915 to resume the lands and to sell the Saguvali Hak for a period of five years by public auction and to submit his report for approval.

7. The Amildar having served notices on all the managers in the month of November 1915 issued a proclamation of sale of lease (Saguvali hak) for being published in the village and also in the neighbouring villages with his No.492 dated the 10th April 1916. The Amildar conducted the sale on the 16th April 1916 and obtained a mutchalika, from the purchasers of Saguvali Hak viz: (1)Siddanna (2) Veerabhadrappa (3) Malakappa (4)Puttappa (5) Basavannappa on the same date.

8. The Amildar in his report No.567 dated the 16th May 1916 states he has realised a sum of Rs.260/- in all by the above sale which will leave a net sum of Rs.244-5-0 to the credit of the institution after paying up a jodi of Rs.15-11-0 including cess to Government.

9. The sale was confirmed in this Office No. P.C.18(Rev)1916-17 dated the 28th August 1916.

10. As regards the Government order to keep the order of this Office in abeyance till the disposal of the appeal, I beg to state that this Office order was given effect to long before the receipt of Government order on the sale subject.

11. The appeal petitions with the enclosures and one file of vernacular records are herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be, the inam is valid, and the land is defined. In 1860, the Naidu Complained that the Car festival was not performed, and the patel Veerappa vader was not Contributing any- things for it. An enquiry was instituted in which it was proved that the patel was already defraying the expenses of the other Services upto the limits of the profits of the land. The Amildar thereupon decided that he Cannot ~~pay~~ be compelled to pay more. This decision was upheld by the Asstt Supdt of the Sub division, in order No 63 dated 22 July 1871 and the Complainants were referred to the Civil Courts for recovery of any amount which may be due.

A Cousin of the husband of Krishnabayi named Madhva Ramachar, Complained that she had lost Caste and was unchaste and therefore was not Conducting the Services for which the inam held by her was granted. An enquiry was made in which it was shown that the Services are being Conducted by an agent employed by the widow in Col 15 under these Circumstances

The apltˢ Suddappa and Mahalabhatta were present in person and were represented through their Advocates, while the apltˢ Krishna Bai and the respdtˢ were absent.

This is one of the several cases that have come up recently to the notice of Govt in which the lessees of Inam lands endowed to a Temple which is a Muzrai institn object to Govt interfering on behalf of the Institution in disposing of the lease of the lands to the best advantage possible, of the Institution. The lands in question are clearly the property of the Temple in as much as they are shown as Devadaya in the Inam Registers. The mere fact that the apltrs and their ancestors were allowed to cultivate them and render certain services does by no means confer any title to the lands in question upon them. They are, at best, trustees of the property and cannot claim any beneficiary interest in it. It is clear from the report of the Dy. Commissioner based upon enquiry that the apltrs have not only allowed the Temple in question to fall into a state of bad neglect and disrepair but that certain services they had bound themselves to perform are also not being conducted Satisfactorily.

It was therefore open to the Dy. Commr to deprive the appellants of the possession of the lands and put up the lease to public auction for the benefit of the Temple.
Govt cannot allow an institution endowed with Inam lands to be denied the full benefit of the grant on participation in increased profits. The appeal is dismissed
